

March 1, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Governor Bob McDonnell will address 91st annual dinner of the Hopewell-Prince George Chamber of Commerce

Governor Bob McDonnell will be the featured speaker at the Hopewell-Prince George Chamber of Commerce's 91st Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner at the Lee Club at Fort Lee on March 31st.

The Governor's appearance will come approximately two weeks after the scheduled adjournment of the 2010 General Assembly. The Governor and the legislature are addressing a state revenue shortfall of approximately $4 billion during the session.

In addition to the Governor's remarks, another highlight of the evening will be the presentation of awards recognizing outstanding business and community accomplishments. "Award nomination forms as well as all other information on the event can be found in the calendar of events on www.hpgchamber.org and we encourage the community to submit their favorite businesses for awards" according to Leigh Burke (VP Operations- Shamin Assisted Living Mgmt), Chair of the 91st Annual Meeting and Awards Committee.

The annual meeting program is being sponsored by Nelsen Funeral Home & Crematory. Awards are being sponsored by Rolls-Royce Crosspointe, LLC; The Matthews Law Group, and John Randolph Medical Center. To become a sponsor of this special evening or to make reservations to attend the dinner meeting you may call the Chamber (804) 458-5536 or email admin@hpgchamber.org.

For more information, contact Becky McDonough, Executive Vice President of the Hopewell-Prince George Chamber of Commerce, at (804) 458-5536.